

DAY 11

Grace for Repentance

Dan Dean, of the singing group Phillips, Craig, and Dean, wrote a beautiful song painting a true picture of the grace of God:

You don't know just how far away from home I've been
She said as she looked into my eyes
Could it be I've strayed beyond mercy's outstretched hand
Now His grace no longer stoops to hear my cry?
See I just wanna know, Tell me how far will He go?
Will he still reach to me in spite of where I've been?

He'll do whatever, whatever it takes
His grace reaches lower than your worst mistake
Oh and his love will run farther than you can run away
He'll do whatever, whatever it takes
He'll do whatever it takes

It may be hard to imagine that God can forgive you no matter where you've been or what you've done, but if you cannot believe that, you hinder the essence of His precious grace. The blood he shed for our sins is discredited. The truth is, His blood was pure enough to cleanse the filthiest of sinners. Yes, my friend, He will forgive you. "... for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him" (Hebrews 11:6). The only prerequisite is that when you ask, believe ... simply and humbly believe.

Scripture Reading:

“Or do you despise the riches of His goodness, forbearance, and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?”
